

Fifteenth of a Series Entitled

SALT LAKE MATRONS AND THEIR CHILDREN

I see by a dispatch that hats in Paris have reached their very highest prices. Can it be that Salt Lake is so much more progressive than Paris? The hats here have never yet reached a limit, but, year by year, climb a little higher on the scale. Time was when $20 was a goodly price to pay for a Salt Lake matron's hat, but now one mentions such a small sum with the most insignificant air, or else whispers it beneath the breath so that none shall know how small a sum she names.

And so there are to be special hats for art exhibitions, when one would suppose a picture hat covered all these needs; hats for the musicales, when it would seem that "a perfect symphony of a hat" would fill the requirements; and so the list goes on. Of course, to be good form, one may have to have those things, but some few of us blessed with forms of our own, will manage to carry along with two or three hats, and thus avoid the stress of mental suffering at all.

The week starts off rather briskly with the big charity card party to be given tomorrow afternoon at the Ladies' Literary club. The object is still the furnishing of the nurses' home of the Leonard Memorial, which the ladies of the Hospital Aid society and their friends have undertaken. Preparations have been completed on a large scale, and the affair promises to eclipse any former event of the kind. Mrs. W. P. Kiser, Mrs. W. C. Jennings and Mrs. A. S. Bowler will receive the guests; Miss Lena Hague will have charge of the prizes, Mrs. J. E. Gallagher and Mrs. C. R. Pearsall will have charge of the refreshments, Mrs. C. H. McMahon and Mrs. F. L. Oswald have taken the matter of providing chairs and tables, while assisting them, serving will be Mrs. Russell Tracy, Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mrs. W. H. Child, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. R. E. McCaughy, Mrs. Warren Benjamin, Mrs. J. A. Reeves and Mrs. J. J. Broughall.

The social committee of the Country club for the summer will consist of Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts, as chairman, with Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Miss Katherine Williams and Miss Marie Miller. The schedule for the opening month of May will probably be out tomorrow, and will show the carefully arranged plans for a season of pleasure for the members. The club is just now at its best, and the enthusiastic members have not waited for the formal opening to enjoy the delights of the place. Although yesterday was a chilly day, there were many small parties for the afternoon and a few dinners in the evening.

A number of the young people, wearying of bridge and its never ceasing hostilities, have formed a peace organization and will study United States history. The organization is well under way with about a dozen enthusiasts, and this dozen met last evening for the fourth period of study at the Leary home. The members so far are Lorene and William Leary, Dr. W. G. B. Terrell and Miss Terrell, Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, Miss Lela Stingley, Miss Mildred McMillan, Miss Bess McMillan, Joseph J. Campbell and Mr. Baker and Mr. Stockwell.

The first of May this year will be a real fitting day, as a number of the handsome new homes will be finished by about that date and opened for the summer hospitality. Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Scheid expect to get into their new home on Brigham street by that time, and this handsome residence promises to be a center of hospitality for all the friends of the bride and groom, who are many. Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Woodruff will move about the first to their magnificent new home on First North, a house which commands a view of the valley almost unsurpassed.

The King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian church will give a unique performance May 1 at the church. The entertainment of the evening will be furnished by the famous Peak sisters, whose wonderful work of a generation ago some will remember. Besides the usual old stunts, there will be some more modern and, to cap it all, refreshments will be served. The affair is for the benefit of the organ fund.

It's All Food

Not merely all wheat. Plenty of foods are all wheat without being all food.

Maple-Flake is all food because our process makes all the starch digestible.

That process takes 96 hours.

It is so expensive that other makers don't use it. They think you would rather save five cents per package. But would you?

Let us tell you the facts, and see.

First, our wheat is steam-cooked for six hours. Think of that—for six hours!

Then we cure it. Then flake each berry so thin that the full heat of our ovens goes through. Then we toast the flakes 30 minutes in a heat of 400 degrees.

Think of that—30 minutes at 400 degrees.

All that is essential. No cheaper method can make the starch all digestible.

Starch, to be digestible, must be made soluble. The particles must be separated so the digestive juices can get to them.

The shorter the process, the less starch will digest. The rest is worse than wasted. It ferments and disturbs the stomach.

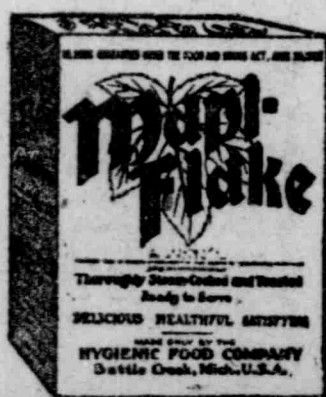

The chief cause of gas on the stomach is that fermented starch.

Maple-Flake is the food that's all food. The one wheat food that's all nourishment, because it all digests.

It's the ideal food for children. So we make it delicious by cooking the wheat in pure maple syrup. The flavor is so tempting that children demand it.

It is better—don't you think?—to entice children, rather than force them, to eat the food that is best for them?

The most interesting thing in local club circles just now is the annual election of officers of the Ladies' Literary club, which takes place at the annual meeting to be held May 8. The election committee, consisting of Mrs. S. F. Fenton, Mrs. C. H. Blanchard and Mrs. W. C. Druehl, reported on Friday last the nominating ballot as follows: For president, Mrs. Allen T. Sanford and Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey; for first vice president, Mrs. E. D. Miller and Mrs. J. F. Cowan; for second vice president, Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson, Mrs. W. A. Wetzel and Mrs. J. L. son, Mrs. S. F. Fenton, Mrs. Byron Groo, Mrs. C. H. Blanchard and Mrs. J. H. Brown.

The meeting held Friday last, which was the last save the business meeting of the year, was most interesting, two topics being given, Mrs. Charles J. Freund read a carefully prepared paper reviewing the original poem of the Nibelungen Lied, and telling of the early German folk lore.

Miss Ethel Paul gave a most entertaining review of "The Fruit of the Tree." The music was a splendid part of the afternoon's program. Miss Lillian Oliver, who has recently returned from abroad, played "Greige's" "On the Mountain" and a Chopin fantasia.

The Wasatch Literary circle met Tuesday with Mrs. Eber Hall. A most instructive and interesting paper was given by Mrs. G. B. Blakeley on the "Life and Work of Luther Burbank."

This was supplemented with remarks of a personal nature by Mrs. Sarah A. Pool, an old-time friend of Mr. Burbank. An instrumental solo by Miss Lena Brown was given. A selection from "Mile Modiste" was sung by Mrs. Fred Jones. Mrs. Jones also sang "May Time," by Ole Speaks. Bernice and Howard Hall sang two duets, "The Bird Song" and "The Merry Frogs."
